2022 Dormont Street and Music Festival Line Up Revealed

Dormont, PA –The Borough of Dormont is excited to announce the full music line-up for the 2022 Dormont Street and Music Festival sponsored by the Borough of Dormont, Arsenal Cider, Gold Mountain Music as well as Dormont Arts, Moonlit Burgers and Back Alley Brewing. The 14th iteration of the Dormont Street and Music Festival will take place on Saturday, October 8th from 1:00pm-8:00pm and will feature an additional 3rd live music tent! Potomac Avenue will be closed from West Liberty Avenue to Belrose Avenue and will feature live music, food and craft vendors during this thrilling event.

Arsenal Cider Main Stage will feature a full line up of local talent which includes the School of Rock kicking off the event at 1:00pm, followed by Jessica Bella Band, King's Ransom, the Smeres, Six Gun Sally, and Dormont's own country star, Justin Fabus.

A 2nd smaller performance tent will be set up on Potomac Avenue by West Liberty Avenue and is presented by Gold Mountain Music. Orion will lead off at 1:00pm, followed by Warm Wet Heart, Right Turn Clyde, Matt Tichon Band, and Big Fat Mallard. A 3rd performance tent will feature acoustic music on the Back Alley Brewing Stage in the Arsenal Cider Brew Garden on Espy and will feature Craig Veltri, Matt Hickey, Mike Figurski, Shelley Duff, Mike Flaherty and Noah Gousse. The Arsenal Cider Brew Garden will feature local brews.

Other highlights include the Borough of Dormont Recreation Board Kidzone on Glenmore Avenue featuring GoExploreCreate public art project and Dormont Fire Department truck, a 30-foot rock wall presented by the Pennsylvania National Guard, and a variety of local food and craft vendors. Ray Ryan New Orleans Band will also be making their way up and down Potomac Avenue.
